

Entries are invited into:

The Warren Trust Awards for Architectural Writing

Write about a building in your community that you know well. Why does the building interest you? What role does it play? How does it bring people together?

Or

Write about a building or a place you really want to visit one day. What is special about it? Why does it appeal to you? When do you think you might get there?

Open category – 1500 words
Secondary School category – 1000 words

Open: First prize – $2000
Secondary School: First prize – $1000
Highly commended prize – 3 will be given across both categories for $500

10 August 2020

writingawards@nzia.co.nz

Email essay as a Word document; text only (no illustrations or images). Essay should have a title but do not put your name on the essay; in your email, include your name and address, and the name of your school (if you are entering in the Secondary School category).

Diana Wichtel (columnist and author);
Tony van Raat (former Head of the School of Architecture, Unitec); Sally Conor (Te Kāhui Whaihanga New Zealand Institute of Architects)

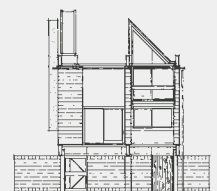

One entry per person. Essay not previously published. Essay must be wholly the work of the person submitting it. Writers must be New Zealand citizens or permanent residents. Writers retain copyright of their essays, but grant the NZIA licence to publish.

Prize-winners will be announced at the beginning of September 2020

nzia.co.nz

Te Kāhui
Whaihanga
New Zealand
Institute of Architects

THE WARREN TRUST