

10 MUST SEE BUILDINGS

1930
Auckland Railway Station
132-148 Beach Road, City 120
Gummer & Ford

Converted to a student hostel, but the dramatic lobby is accessible to the public.

1956
All Saints Church
1 Ponsonby Terrace, Ponsonby 15
Richard Toy

The most celebrated of Toy's churches, All Saints' combines Maori and Pakeha references.

1977
UoA Recreation Centre
17 Symonds St, City 137
JASMaD

This multi-storey structure negotiates a number of levels, many of the facilities being located below ground.

1986
UoA School of Music
6 Symonds St, City 123
Hil Manning Mitchell

One of NZ's key post-modern designs, this is a sophisticated collection of allusions, references and quotations.

2003
Britomart Transport Centre
12 Queen St, City 43
Mario Madyeag & Jasmax

The Chief Post Office became the station's entrance, with the subterranean platform surmounted by a crisp glass box.

2009
Ironbank
150 Karangahape Road, City 83
RTA Studio

Recipient of the NZIA-Reserve Architecture Medal and numerous other gongs, this must be NZ's most awarded building ever.

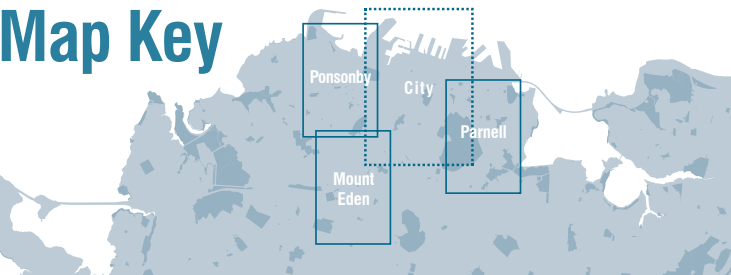

2011
Auckland City Art Gallery Renovation
1 Kitchener St, City 97
JFMJ + Archimedia

A series of beautifully crafted civic spaces.

2011
Wynyard Quarter
Jellicoe St, City 3
Architectus et al

A playground for all ages, this redevelopment finally grants Aucklanders access to their urban waterfront.
